

INVITATION TO INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS FOR FIRST-RATE THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION

A Master of Divinity degree with a global perspective.

As a graduate, professional school at a university that is consistently ranked among the top 25 universities in the United States, we offer distinct advantages when it comes to theological education.

- 2 Full Scholarships that cover 100% of tuition and student health insurance for MDiv students. Finances should not be a burden for you to obtain a masters degree. We want you to focus on what's important - your vocational aspirations. There is no separate application for scholarships.
- An ecumenical and engaging learning environment with over 30 faith traditions present among the student body. Whatever tradition you come from and however you call God by name, your gifts for leadership will be creatively enhanced as you prepare to answer your calling in an ever-changing world. We also offer denominational studies to help prepare you for ordination.
- A creative and diverse faculty that embody the teacher-scholar ideal. Faculty teach all full-credit academic courses. With a 7:1 student-faculty ratio, our faculty are invested in what you think, feel, and do.
- Moving Toward an Advanced Degree. If your next step is a Ph.D. in disciplines like New Testament, religious history, or homiletics and worship, we're working for you. Our academic resources help students from the time they arrive on campus to find their academic passions and prepare them for lives of meaning and purpose. The University's Z. Smith Reynolds Library has over 90,000 theological holdings and won the 2011 Association of College and Research Libraries Excellence Award.
- Field education opportunities through our Art of Ministry program where you can engage in a ministry of your choosing, like pastoral leadership, religious education, community organizing, music, or chaplaincy. It is hard to imagine a form of ministry and religious leadership that you could not explore here.

Our mission - to educate agents of justice, reconciliation, and compassion - sets Wake Forest University School of Divinity apart. In the spirit of the University motto - Pro Humanitate ("For Humanity") - it is our goal to creatively prepare you for service to humankind through the church, academy, and community.
